

DIALS NEWS.

The school at this place opened here on Monday the 9th, with Miss Walsh of St. Matthew, as principal, and Miss Annie Wright of Tyersville as primary teacher. This will be Miss Wright's third term as teacher here. Miss Walsh, however, comes well recommended, and with the hearty co-operation of teachers and patrons we see no reason why this term should be other than a successful one.

Mrs. William Brooks visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lan Ropp of Gray Court last week.

The sixth annual Laurens County Fair was largely attended from here, and from a spectator's point of view seemed a success in every way.

Rev. W. A. Baldwin of Rabun will preach in the Eden school auditorium the first Sunday afternoon in November. No doubt a large crowd will be present, as Mr. Baldwin is an able preacher.

Miss Anna Switzer is spending a while with her sister, Mrs. Henderson of the Friendship community.

Masters Tillman and Jack Bolt, and sisters, Nell and Grace, of Hickory Tavern, were the week-end guests of their grandmother, Mrs. J. R. Brownlee.

The Hallowe'en party that is to be given by the ladies of the School Improvement society of Eden, in the school building Friday evening, the 27th, promises to be a very entertaining affair. The public at large is cordially invited to attend and enjoy the fun.

Quite a number of our people have been attending the McLendon meetings in Greenville and the news that he goes from Greenville to Clinton is received with satisfaction by many.

Miss Annie Wright, was the week-end guest of homefolks in Tyersville. Mr. and Mrs. John Simmons spent the week-end with Mrs. Alex. McCall and family.

Mrs. Woodruff and Miss Thomas of Laurens, are visiting Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Frady, this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Willie Harris, Julius Curry, and Mr. and Mrs. Broadus Cook motored up to Greenville Saturday.

Mr. Ben Campbell and family spent last Sunday in Greenville, the guest of his daughter, Mrs. Mack Campbell.

Messrs Sam Curry, J. A. Curry and Willie Harris, went to Greenville Sunday afternoon to attend the McLendon meeting.

A large delegation from this place will attend the harvest Jubilee in Columbia this week.

Mr. Marvin Harris left last week for Greenville, where he has accepted a position in Sloan Pharmacy.

Rev. T. W. Munnerlyn filled his regular appointment here Sunday afternoon, preaching to a good congregation, all of whom seemed to enjoy the able discourse.

Mr. Munnerlyn will preach again at this place next Sunday afternoon, and the second Sunday in November also before conference which convenes in Greenville the latter part of next month.

Mrs. Festus Curry and little daughter Marvis Clare left Sunday for Bennettsville, Mrs. Curry having received a telegram that her mother Mrs. Easterling was seriously ill.

Mrs. Curry's many friends sympathize with her in her anxiety, and wish for her mother an early recovery.

Mr. and Mrs. Slim Meeks and children visited relatives in Fork Shoals last Sunday.

MOTHER! DON'T TAKE CHANCES IF CHILD'S TONGUE IS COATED

If cross, feverish, sick, bilious, clean little liver and bowels.

A laxative today saves a sick child tomorrow. Children simply will not take the time from play to empty their bowels, which become clogged up with waste, liver gets sluggish, stomach sour.

Look at the tongue, Mother! If coated or your child is listless, cross, feverish, breath bad, restless, doesn't eat heartily, full of cold or has sore throat or any other children's ailment, give a teaspoonful of "California Syrup of Figs," then don't worry, because it is perfectly harmless, and in a few hours all this constipation poison, sour bile and fermenting waste will gently move out of the bowels, and you have a well, playful child again. A thorough "inside cleansing" is oftentimes all that is necessary. It should be the first treatment given in any sickness.

Beware of counterfeit fig syrups. Ask your druggist for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs" which has full directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups plainly printed on the bottle. Look carefully and see that it is made by the "California Fig Syrup Company."

CROSS HILL NEWS.

Cross Hill, Oct. 23.—Rev. and Mrs. J. A. Martin of Westminster are here visiting their children. Mrs. Martin has been here a week or more and Mr. Martin came down from Laurens Friday.

Rev. Robert G. Lee of Waterloo, delivered a very interesting lecture at the school building Thursday evening. His subject was the poet, Frank L. Stanton, native of South Carolina. The patriotism, love, optimism and other characteristics of this great Southern poet were pictured in the most beautiful and interesting terms by the speaker in the continued recital of verses bearing upon these traits of character from the pen of the poet himself. The lecture showed the possession of a wonderful memory by the speaker, as well as a commendable love of verse and attainment as a platform orator. The proceeds will be used for the enlargement of the Waterloo school library.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Hart of Jacksonville, Fla., are spending several days here with Mr. Hart's mother, Mrs. Margie Hart, who has been right sick for a week or more at the home of her daughter, Mrs. B. A. Wharton.

A great number of our people attended the Laurens and Greenwood Fairs last week.

Messrs Scurry and Iusti received a car load of new Ford cars last week and are now prepared to supply a limited demand. It seems difficult for the Ford manufacturers to make these cars as fast as the trade wishes to buy them.

Mr. Butler Black of Jasper county is spending a few weeks with his father's family.

Mr. Clarence Lowe and family of Ninety Six have moved to Cross Hill and are occupying the J. F. McSwain residence. Mr. Lowe is a son of Mr. S. W. Lowe of this place.

MADDEN NEWS.

Madden, Oct. 23.—Sowing grain is the order of the day in our neck of the woods. We do hope that every farmer, now that flour is so high and going higher, will sow enough wheat for his own use. Begin now and get the wheat land ready!

Our city was very well represented at the County Fair, omst everybody and his neighbor was there. Several exhibits from here took blue ribbons as a perusal of the list of winners will show.

Master Gus Cunningham Wofford is receiving congratulations from friends on receiving first prize on pig in boys pig club. Yes, sir! Joe, the 71-2 months old pig that weighed 320 lbs. when he was expressed to the State Fair, took the blue ribbon, much to the joy of the little fellow, who was certainly faithful to feed the pig with his own hands three times per day. All the boys in the club had very creditable pigs and deserve credit. The hope of the farming interest lies in these boys. They will see that there is money in other things than cotton. No use to preach to the older ones "who are set in their ways"—like Ephraim of old, they are joined to their idols and you just as well let 'em alone!

Everybody at the fair seemed to be in a jolly good humor and as Mrs. Dunlap remarked as she came beaming by—she had the fair spirit perhaps that was the reason—all had caught the "fair spirit". We say all were happy. We beg to mention two supremely happy souls—Langston and McCuen, as they cantered round the ring. Said one old farmer as he shifted his quid of tobacco, "McCuen wouldn't take $100 for his job today", and I added "neither would Jud take $200 for his!" We had a good day—all enjoyed it (mind you now, I did not get a drenching). We hope we'll have a good day next year—minus the rain!

We had a good congregation at New Prospect Sunday, our usual preaching day. Rev. Mr. Courtenay of Columbia, head of "The Rescue Home" for unfortunate children, preached for us from these words, "Where is thy God?" He gave us an account of the work the much needed work, he is doing. A very creditable contribution was given him at the close of the sermon.

Friends of Mrs. D. G. Ruckman, of Staunton, Va., were glad to greet her Sunday and to have her worship with her home church again. She is with her mother while her father J. A. P. Moore, is in the hospital at Cleveland, Ohio. We are glad to hear favorable reports from his bedside and hope to see him back in his place before long at New Prospect.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Bolt and children enjoyed an opossum dinner with their kinsman, Mr. J. D. Culbertson Sunday. In the afternoon Mr. and Mrs. Bolt and Mr. and Mrs. Culbertson motored to Mt. Pleasant for services in the afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Drate Todd and their mother, Mrs. Todd, came down to preaching Sunday from aBrksdale and were the guests for dinner of Mr. J. H. Power.

Mrs. J. A. Wofford and Mrs. May Madden attended and greatly enjoyed the quarterly held with the good sisters of the Second Baptist church.

Friends here of Mrs. Mollie Teague who is now on a visit to her niece, Mrs. L. C. Martin, of Spartanburg, were sorry to hear she had a fall out of a high door badly shaking her up and spraining her foot.

The writer is under obligations to Mrs. G. H. Finley for some fine tomatoes.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Walter Moore were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Thad Moore Sunday.

Union Meeting.

11:00—Organization and enrollment.

11:30—Query: Are we saved for service or just to escape the wrath of God? Alvin Martin and Dock Henderson.

Intermission for dinner.

1:30 P. M.—What should be done with a member who fails to attend his church meetings and support his church? J. W. Lanford and Rev. J. A. Brock.

2:30—What should be the attitude of a church member to his Sunday School? Rev. H. A. O'Kelly and Oscar Lanford.

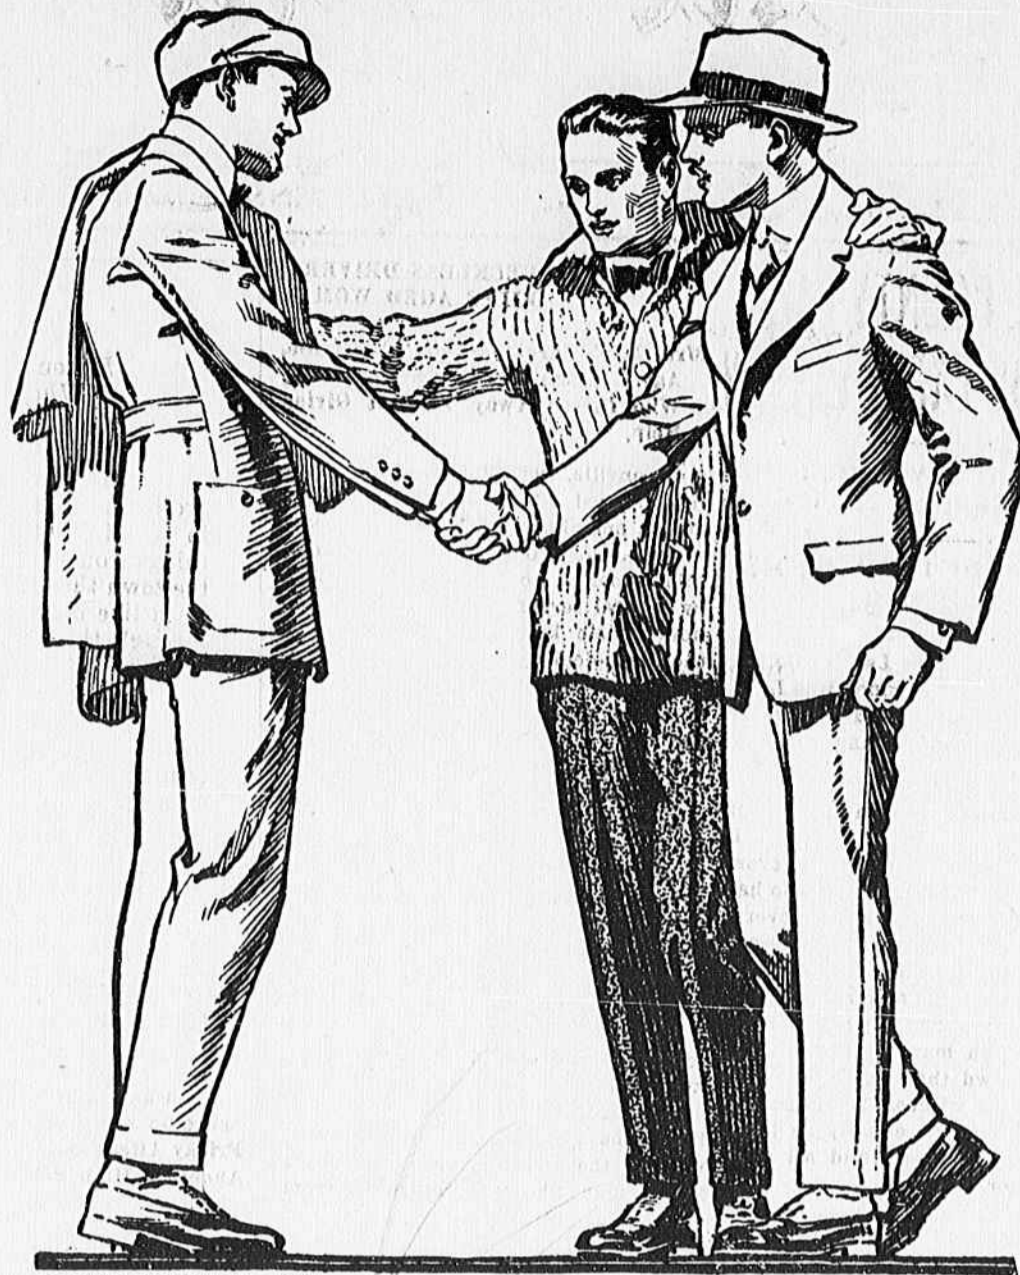

Sunday Morning.

10:00 A. M.—Sunday School.

11:00—Prayer and song service, led by W. C. Wilkie.

11:30—Missionary sermon by Rev. J. A. Brock.

Let each church be sure and send delegates.
